

Saints Rookie League Reminder

With the governor's "Stay at Home" order extended through May 18th, we will unfortunately need to reschedule this year's Saints Rookie League. We will still plan on the same format (three sessions and one game day experience), starting on Saturday, June 13th. For more info, visit this link:

MBA Pens Letters to Walz

The Minnesota Baseball Association has sent Minnesota Governor, Tim Walz, multiple letters, outlining a plan for the 2020 season. The details of said plan were not made available at this time.

Last Week's Highlights:

Thank you for checking out the third issue of the Pinstripe Times. Listed here will be the highlights and top performers of each week during the season.

Missed Games, Schedule Update

It's been a tough spring for youth and high school ballplayers across the state, first with their school seasons cancelled, and now the Legion season being shut down for the 2020 year. As for the Saints, we have had to suspend our scheduled opening day, which will now (hopefully) take place one week from tomorrow at home against the defending MBA champs, the Jordan Brewers.

By that date, we will have missed five scheduled matchups, including a rematch with Class "B" powerhouse, Cold Spring Springers, in which last season stole a late inning win at Saints Field. League play was scheduled to start this Sunday as well, where we had planned to host the Howard Lake Orphans, but that will also need to be postponed/rescheduled.

It is not yet clear when or if the 2020 season will begin, but we will be sure to continue to give updates on scheduling changes.

Saints Continue Off-Season Signings

The NSL Hot Stove is still burning in to early May, as the Saints sign rookie Jacob Niemela's younger brother, Nikolai. Nikolai will now be the youngest Saint in recent memory. A Dassel-Cokato sophomore, with a sweet stroke, much like his brother, will help contribute in a variety of ways to a strong roster.

NSL All-Decade Team

One very dedicated NSL fan has compiled a list dubbed the "NSL All-Decade Team". Of the 28 total selections, 5 of them are/were members of the Dassel-Cokato squad. There were 7 categories on this list, and the Saints selections include:

John Hohenstein – "Mr. Consistency"

Matt Bergstrom (Shared with Maple Lake) – "X-Factor"

Jordan Flick – "Horse on the Hill"

Tyler Zweibohmer – "Mr. Dependable"

Jordan Danielson – "Reliever"
