On This Day In Saints History

We would love to be reporting on current games, but with the 2020 season still on hold, here's a blast from the past. On June 2nd, 2004, the Saints took on the Kingston Kings (now Cokato Kemels), battling their way to a 9-1 victory. The offensive charge included 11 hits, 8 walks, and 8 batters reached on error for a total of 24 baserunners. Here's some notable performances from the game:

Shawn Larson – 5 IP, W, 1 ER, 5 H, 2 K, 3 BB

Brent Opsahl – 2-2, HR, 3 RBI, 3 R, BB, SB

Pete Burkstrand – 2-2, R, BB, 2 SB

Noah Johnson – 2-5, R, BB, SB

John Riewer – 2-3, RBI, R

Note from the DCBA regarding Summer Youth Baseball

Parents and players of DCBA youth baseball: Listed are updated guidelines and schedules implemented for 2020. These three documents are very important, and we ask that you please read them if you or your child are planning to participate in the 2020 summer youth baseball season:
