

PINSTRIPE TIMES

RECAP >

SAINTS GO 2-1 ON THE WEEK

On Wednesday night, the Saints were able to capture their first win of the 2023 campaign, beating the Glencoe Brewers by a score of 9-7. A total of 9 different Saints collected hits, and Dylan Weber led the way going 4-4 with a walk. Collin Krick made a strong start on the mound, throwing 5 innings while striking out 8 to earn the win. Paul Jacobson locked down his first career save with a scoreless 9th inning.

The weekend slate began with a trip to Cold Spring Baseball Park for a friendly with the Rockies. Graham Jacobson made his first career start on the hill, pitching 4 strong innings, striking out three and giving up just one earned run. The defense was a little dicey in the middle innings, and although the bullpen held their own, the Saints dropped the tight Friday night contest by a final score of 6-5. On a positive note, the Saints did out-hit the Rockies, reaching double digits for what would become the second of three times on the week.

Back in North Star League action on Sunday evening, the Saints would finish out the week with a bang. Traveling to "The Hive" behind Waverly Elementary to take on the Montrose-Waverly Stingers, the visiting Halos remembered their bats. The name of the game was offense, and after 18 runs, including a 10-run second inning, the tag-team of Jacob Niemela and Noah Halonen would have plenty of run support to secure the 18-6 win in 7 innings. Ben Lindquist's 4 hits led the way at the plate.

UPCOMING >

ROOKIE LEAGUE NIGHT FRIDAY!

This Friday night is "Rookie League Night"! We're celebrating our Saints Rookie Leaguers by inviting them and their families out to the park as we take on the Clearwater River Cats. Rookie Leaguers will join us on the field before the game to play catch and take their positions during the national anthem. Come on out for a great time!

POW >

TWO PLAYERS STAND OUT IN A GREAT TEAM EFFORT FOR WEEK 3

In a week where the Saints were able to push across 32 runs on 39 hits, Dylan Weber stood out at the plate as the Hitter of the Week. D-Web tallied 6 hits, drew a pair of walks, and drove in 4 runs. Others for consideration were Ben Lindquist, who had 6 hits of his own, driving in a trio of runs himself. Graham Jacobson stayed hot at the plate with 5 hits as well, including a pair of doubles.

On the hill, Michael Leffler takes home the Pitcher of the Week honors, tossing 3 shutout innings at Cold Spring Baseball Park, striking out 3. Other solid performances included Paul Jacobson, who earned his first career save, and Nikolai Niemela, who cruised through a pair of shutout relief innings.

Overall, it was a good week on both sides for the Saints. The defense still could use some cleaning, but Saints pitchers are giving the team a chance to win, especially with the run support their getting as of late.